

What you need to do....

Take part in our Butterfly trail around the Newtown area. 20 butterflies are on display all over the town in various shops and public areas. The challenge is to locate all 20, naming the location of each individual butterfly on the following page. All butterflies have been numbered from 1 - 20 and are undercover in public view. When completing the entry form, you must match the butterfly number to a location.

Take part as an individual, a family or as a team and return your entry form to Theatr Hafren by Tuesday 6th September. A winner will be drawn and awarded a £50 theatre voucher.

Send your entry form to: The Butterfly Trail, Theatr Hafren, Llanidloes Road, Newtown, Powys. SY16 4HU.

Please direct any queries to the box office on 01686 625 007.

Madam Butterfly

Wednesday 7th September 7.30pm
Friday 9th September 7.30pm
Saturday 10th September 7.30pm

The tragic love story of Cio Cio San, a young geisha girl and Pinkerton, an American Naval Officer has resonated across the musical world since Puccini first introduced it. The cultural clash, seen through the drama and heard in the music, provides a backdrop to what is a very human tragedy.

With some of the most sumptuous music ever written for the opera stage, including the dramatic soprano aria "One Fine Day", this will be an intimate, beautiful and heart-rending experience for Mid Wales opera-goers old and new.

Tickets: £10 - £26
with pre-performance talk 6.30pm
